My dear William

I enclose the first instalment of the approval by the Australian Bishops of the delegation. Would you take the trouble of seeing Mr. Lee, and placing these papers in his hands, to file along with the others which I left with him, and will you kindly ascertain from him,

1. Whether Bishop Downey's assent should not be required, as a Bishop of the Province - at any rate, may it not be as well formally sent to Mr. Lee, as making up the necessary majority?
2. Whether Bishop Short had resigned before the Tasmanian Synod voted the delegation?
